

美中政策基金会

The United-States-China Policy Foundation

Est. 1995

Recent Activities

2013

- February 25 – March 20: USCPF helped sponsor and organize an exhibition of Chinese scrolls at George Mason University's Fine Art Gallery. The scrolls, representing calligraphy and paintings from the Ming dynasty through the 20th century, belong to the personal collection of USCPF President Chi Wang.
- March 27 – April 5: USCPF's first Policymakers Trip of 2013 brought senior staff from newly elected members of the Senate and House to China for the first time. The delegation visited Beijing, Shanghai, and Guizhou province to learn about China's government, urban life, and minority cultures.
- April 14- 21: USCPF led a military delegation to China to meet with military officers, government officials, and scholars. Dr. Chi Wang, Amb. Chas Freeman, and Adm. William Fallon visited Beijing to hold discussion on military relations, in addition to touring the North Sea Fleet in Qingdao. The delegation was hosted by the China Institute for International Strategic Studies.
- April 19: USCPF President Chi Wang gave a book talk at Georgetown University about his memoirs, A Compelling Journey from Peking to Washington as well as his newly published book The United States and China Since World War II.
- June 10: USCPF hosted a luncheon at the Cosmos Club in Washington, DC to discuss the April military delegation's findings. Delegation participants Adm. William Fallon and Amb. Chas Freeman spoke about their experiences in China and their thoughts on the future of mil-to-mil relations between the U.S. and China.
- July 11: USCPF, in cooperation with NCUSCR, USCBC, and other organizations, jointly hosted a reception and dinner at the Marriot Wardman Park Hotel honoring China's delegation to the Fifth Round of the U.S.-China Strategic and Economic Dialogue.

2012

- February 15: USCPF, in cooperation with twelve other organizations, jointly hosted a welcome luncheon at the Marriot Wardman Park Hotel honoring Chinese Vice President Xi Jinping during his visit to Washington, D.C.
- May 5: The Renwen Society of the China Institute of America hosted a lecture and book signing by Dr. Chi Wang, President of the USCPF, for his book, A Compelling Journey from Peking to Washington: Building a New Life in America.
- May 22: USCPF hosted a welcome luncheon at the Cosmos Club for Ambassador Lu Shumin, vice president of the Chinese People's Institute of Foreign Affairs, and members of his delegation during their visit to Washington, D.C.
- May 30: USCPF arranged meetings for Dr. Wei Yang, President of Zhejiang University, with the U.S. House Committee on Education and Congressman Richard Hanna (R-NY) to discuss higher education issues and U.S.-China relations.
- July 24, 2012: USCPF hosted a send-off dinner and educational talk for the 2012 senior Congressional staff delegation. Mr. Donald Tong, Hong Kong Commissioner for Economic and Trade Affairs in the United States, was the guest of honor.
- August 4-14: The USCPF's 2012 Policymakers Trip to China sent a bipartisan delegation of senior staff from the Senate and House on a ten-day tour of China. Participants visited Hong Kong, Beijing, and Guilin, learning about Chinese history, culture, and economic development.
- October 1: USCPF published the 20th anniversary edition of the Washington Journal of Modern China, a biannual journal dedicated to articles on current events in U.S.-China relations as well as Chinese politics, security issues, economics, and culture.
- November 1: USCPF held a luncheon for representatives of major U.S. companies at the Embassy of the People's Republic of China. Ambassador Zhang Yesui served as the host at this event, which celebrated the role American businesses have played in the U.S.-China relationship.

- December 11: The USCPF held its 17th Annual Gala Dinner at the Mayflower Renaissance Hotel. Dr. Zbigniew Brzezinski gave the keynote remarks, and the Foundation honored substantial individual contributions to the U.S.-China relationship.

2011

- January 22: USCPF participated in a luncheon welcoming Chinese President Hu Jintao on his official state visit to Washington, D.C. The luncheon was held at the Marriot Wardman Park Hotel.
- April 16-23: The USCPF led a non-partisan delegation of Congressional staff members from the newly elected members of the 112th U.S. Congress on a weeklong tour of China.
- May 25: The USCPF co-hosted a private panel discussion and luncheon celebrating the 30th anniversary of China Daily. Guest speakers were Amb. Chas W. Freeman, Jr., Dr. Kenneth G. Lieberthal, Amb. J. Stapleton Roy, Amb. James R. Sasser and Amb. Richard Solomon.
- August 6-15: The USCPF sent nine Congressional staff members to Beijing, Qinghai, and Tibet on its Policymakers Trip to China program, where they learned about China's ethnic minority cultures and rural development policies.
- September 15: A Public Diplomacy Roundtable was held at the Willard Hotel on "The Outlook for Taiwan." China-Taiwan experts Richard Bush, Bonnie Glaser, Douglas Paal, and Robert Sutter discussed the upcoming Taiwanese elections and the future of cross-strait relations.
- November 3: The Foundation's 16th annual gala dinner was hosted at the Mayflower Renaissance Hotel. Chinese Ambassador Zhang Yesui gave the keynote speech and the USCPF recognized the achievements of noteworthy individuals for the dedication to improving the U.S.-China commercial scene.

2010

- February 4: USCPF held a farewell luncheon reception for His Excellency Zhou Wenzhong, ambassador of the People's Republic of China, prior to his return to China in February.
- August 8-17: Congressional staff on the 2010 Policymakers trip learned about China's efforts to develop and utilize alternative energy sources, including visits to Three Gorges Dam and Qinshan Nuclear Power Station in Zhejiang province. Participants also visited cultural and historic sites in Beijing and Shanghai, as well as the 2010 Shanghai Expo. The program participants consisted of a bipartisan group of senior congressional staff, primarily chiefs of staff.

- September 22: The USCPF co-sponsored a reception for Premier Wen Jiabao at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York City during the United Nations General Assembly.
- November 15: The Annual Gala Dinner, held at the Willard InterContinental Hotel in downtown, Washington, D.C., celebrated achievements in U.S.-China relations and marked the 15th anniversary of the founding of the Foundation.
- November 28 – December 4: The USCPF hosted a visiting military delegation from the Chinese Institute for International and Strategic Studies (CIISS) during its visit to Washington, D.C. and New York City.

2009

- January 12-13: USCPF President, Dr. Wang Chi, participated in a conference sponsored by CPIFA in commemoration of the 30th anniversary of the normalization of US-China relations.
- April 6-15: The USCPF organized its 2009 Policymakers program, exploring the differences between China's developing urban areas and the challenges in rural areas, particularly for ethnic minorities. The trip included visits to Beijing, Shanghai, and the interior provinces of Inner Mongolia and Gansu.
- July 28: The USCPF co-hosted a dinner at the Ritz Carlton Hotel honoring Chinese Vice Premier Wang Qishan and State Councilor Dai Bingguo during the inaugural Strategic and Economic Dialogue in Washington, DC.
- September 17: The USCPF's annual gala dinner was hosted at the Willard Intercontinental hotel. The USCPF honored Mr. Maurice R. Greenburg, Chairman and CEO, C.V. Starr & Co.; Ms. Jan Berris, Vice President of the National Committee on US-China Relations; and Mr. Yuan Ning, Chairman and President of China Construction America.

For more information on the U.S.-China Policy Foundation's activities and programs, we invite you to please visit our website (www.uscpf.org).